

Border County Notes

Friday May 17, 1907

CARROLL.

H. A. Uhrig of Sugartree killed a ball eagle last week that measured six feet from tip to tip of its wings.

Mrs. Geo. Parker, aged 30 years, died at her home, near Hale, Tuesday.

Simon Thoeni of near Norborne had his collar-bone broken Friday by the recoil of a gun which he was shooting.

Wolf hunts are being held every day in Carroll county. A bounty of $3 has been placed on their scalps.

The freshmen and sophomores of the Carrollton high school played baseball Friday afternoon. The "freshies" won.

The infant child of Albert Watson, who died in Kansas City, was brought to Carrollton Thursday for burial.

The Danville Kasper Carnival Co., under the auspices of the Carrollton fire department, is amusing the people at that place this week.

W. E. Noble of Bosworth, who lost a horse about two weeks ago, recovered it Saturday. Roy Cox of Trotter township had taken it up as a stray.

The marshal at Carrollton is putting a stop to business men sweeping papers and trash into the streets. Great pity some other towns have not such a vigilant officer of the law.

Tom Sugg of near Tina brought a rare specimen of a hen egg into the Tina Herald office Wednesday. It was shaped like a gourd, weighing about the same as an ordinary egg.

T. C. Brown of Norborne is laid up with a crippled foot, caused by the careless handling of a gun Wednesday. The weapon discharged, shooting him through the foot.

At a point where the track was bad, not far from Norborne, Santa Fe train No. 1 was wrecked Monday morning. The tender left the track, carrying with it two baggage and four passenger cars. The baggage cars, which contained three automobiles, were totally destroyed by fire. No one was badly hurt although there were about 60 passengers on the train, and only seven had any injuries whatever. The loss to the Santa Fe will not exceed $20,000.

Wash McClain reports a wolf hunt in Ridge township; one wolf was killed and another got away. These animals are getting bad in that part of the county; many farmers have lost a good many sheep and the people out here want a bounty put on wolves so they can be exterminated. The same condition exists in other parts of the county and a petition was presented to the county court asking that the full bounty be put on wolf scalps.—Carrollton Democrat.

MARRIAGES

Thos. Upland of near Lincoln and Miss Martha Little of near Tina.

John Marple and Miss Bessie Richeson, both of Coloma.

HOWARD.

The Fayette public school closed Friday.

Reuben Long of Armstrong is grieving over the loss of his fine strawberry crop.

Mrs. Lucy Frances Crews, 44 years old, died at her home, near Steinmetz, Sunday.

Mrs. Carrie Owings of Fayette suffered a stroke of apoplexy Monday and is in a precarious condition.

Some dogs killed two lambs and injured several sheep belonging to J. W. Wallace of Roanoke Sunday.

The Glasgow Globe has suspended publication. It has been published for the past few years by Chas. Diggs.

Mrs. Mary Hickman Rollins, born in Howard county, died at her home in Columbia Wednesday, aged 80 years.

Mrs. Mary Wilhite, one of the oldest citizens of Howard county, died at her home, near Hildale, Tuesday night, aged 80 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Andrews of near Myers entertained a number of friends at their tin wedding anniversary Thursday.

The Phinx Alpha Literary society of Central college, Fayette, entertained a large audience Monday night at their annual open session.

Charles Wilson, a brakeman on the M., K. & T. railroad, made a ghastly find in a box-car at Franklin Junction early Monday morning. Upon peering in a car he saw the prostrate form of a man lying in the rear end. He entered the car and found the body was that of a dead negro known in Booneville as a gambler and went by the name of "Rough Heel." His head presented a horrible sight. His upper lip was cut clear through and hung inside his mouth. His head had a depression several inches in length and the knuckles of his left hand were broken and his body otherwise injured. He is supposed to have been murdered somewhere in the South and thrown into the car.

MARRIAGES.

Elijah Asbury of Mexico and Miss Helen Lois Hickerson of Fayette.

MACON.

Franklin Pierce, a citizen of Macon for 20 years, died in Chicago Saturday.

Dr. J. Auler of Metz, Germany, has been in Macon the past week trying to settle his claim of $130,000 against the Brees estate. It is believed that some settlement has been effected.

The costs in the case of A. F. Cunningham against W. M. Henderson, both of Macon, in involving the large sum of $150 for which Cunningham is alleged to have sold a wagon to defendant, amounted to $33.

Claude Burns, arrested for stealing his grandfather's horse at Atlanta, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary Saturday. If Burns can pay his grandfather for the horse he may be paroled on good behavior.

There seems to be nothing that boys will not do now-a-days, in searching for excitement. In Macon they dug into the grave of Missouri A. Fortney, buried in 1867. Macon must be an awfully dull town, when the boys turn ghoul for amusement.

Marion Walker and his son of Novinger, charged with stealing $60 worth of brass from the Central Coal & Coke Co., were arraigned in police court at Macon Tuesday. The father was sentenced to 90 days in jail and the son 10 days. After stealing the brass they took it to Macon and offered it for sale. Walker formerly lived at Bevier.

Four miles north of New Cambria is the cave dwelling of John

G. Jones, the kindly hermit of Macon county, who is worth about $12,000. For 40 years he has lived a solitary life in the woods as primeval as ever resounded to the ax of a Missouri pioneer. He is 69 years old.

MARRIAGES.

C. H. Wilder and Miss Bertie Roth, both of Macon.

Chas. King and Miss Flora Heifner, both of Excello.

William Cornelison and Miss Jesse Moore, both of Bevier.

Ernest Baker and Miss Mattie R. Shanks, both of Clarence.

Oda M. Phillips and Miss Lillie Durham, both of Jacksonville.

E. B. Summers and Miss Blanche L. Gordon, both of Caliao.

LINN.

A "soft drink" cafe has been opened in Browning.

The annual junior-senior banquet was given at the Elks' hall in Brookfield Thursday evening.

Inez, the 11-year-old daughter of Spencer Hughes of Marceline, burned herself severely by a coal oil explosion last week while making a fire in a stove.

Jas. Harrison Swinney, born in Howard county in 1848, died at a hospital in Kansas City Saturday, aged 59 years. He was one of Linneus' best citizens.

Mrs. Ed. Harter, one of Linn county's most esteemed young women, died of consumption at her home, near Linneus, Wednesday morning.

A mule colt belonging to D. E. Austin of Carpenter fell in a well Monday morning. It was rescued and seemed apparently none the worse for its plunge.

The little son of Ben Wilson, who lives near Marceline, attempted to carry three axes at one time and lost one finger as a result.

Chas. Hines, a Brunswick negro, stole a cigar box containing about $6 from Racine's lunch room in Marceline Thursday. He claimed to be Jimmy Jungle from Joliet, Ill., but a Marceline man of color said: "He is nothing but a common Brunswick nigger."

Friday the city marshal of Browning arrested Dr. J. A. Mairs and Kale Cotter of the Mairs drug store, Arthur Summers of the Lentz drug firm, and C. L. Whaley & Son Drug Co., for the illegal sale of liquor. They all pleaded guilty and were each fined $100 and trimmings.

MARRIAGES

James Mason of Macon and Mrs. Mary J. Parmelee of Linneus.

Claude E. Jackson of LaJunta, Col., and Miss Ruby M. Nickell of Marceline.

LIVINGSTON.

A. D. Thomas, a former resident of Livingston county, 69 years old, died at Gibbs, Mo., Sunday.

Earle Steele of the Chillicothe high school won first place in the mile race at the high school meet in Columbia Saturday.

Miss Bessie Botts of Chillicothe is to be married to Elmer Gann of Kansas City at an early date.

The marriage announcement of Miss Ida Tessa Martin to August G. Bauer, both of Rich Hill township, was announced Sunday.

Peter Karsgaard, a former Chillicothe violinist, was severely burned in the university building fire at Kansas City Wednesday afternoon.

"After all, there is nothing like
CREAM
BAKING POWDER
I have used it with satisfaction for nearly forty years. No alum for me."

Chillicothe, died at his home in Illinois Monday.

Mrs. Ida M. Mitchell, who has lived in Fairview township for 12 years, died at her home in Syracuse, Kas., aged 38 years.

Chief-of Police Dorney of Chillicothe had a lively chase after Gid Wright Tuesday afternoon, while trying to arrest him. He did not succeed in arresting him after all.

The suit of Vincent Beaver against Jas. Patterson, both of near Chillicothe, came up in court Saturday. Beaver is suing Patterson for assault which Patterson claims was justified.

Thos. Every of Chillicothe was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary Wednesday. He was charged with burglary and larceny. He was the third victim sent to the "pen" from Livingston county last week.

Freeman Norris, charged with complicity in the forging of a check by Lee Knickbocker of Chillicothe, was found guilty in the circuit court Monday and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

The families of Jas. White and Lou Simpkins, both of Chillicothe, are in destitute circumstances. White killed Simpkins about two weeks ago and is now in jail. They each have a wife and several children on the mercies of the town.

A demented man was picked up by the Chillicothe authorities Sunday, near that city. He had frightened several women and kept muttering the word "Iowa" to himself. He was unable to tell his name or anything about himself and was taken to jail for safe-keeping.

A crowd of Chillicothe picnickers were badly shaken up by the overturning of a wagonette Thursday. While returning home the wagonette overturned, throwing them into a deep, muddy hole. A Miss Casher nearly drowned in the muddy water and Pearl Smith and Jas. Carroll both sustained injuries.

The little son of Chas. McNeese, formerly of Chillicothe, who was kidnapped in Kansas City April 5, is now reported to be in New Mexico. His mother took the child and disappeared with him. Mrs. Sadler, the boy's grandmother, was arrested, charged with being an accomplice in the kidnapping of the child, and is now out on bond. Mrs. McNeese wrote a letter to the chief-of-police in Kansas City saying that she had the child and saying that his grandmother was in no way to blame.

MARRIAGES.

Michael Reynolds and Miss Florence McMillen, both of Chillicothe.

Hickman J. Wigginton of Linneus and Mrs. Kate Stewart of Chillicothe. Mr. Wigginton is the talented editor of the Linneus Bulletin. Congratulations, brother.

RANDOLPH.

Mrs. Esther Guile, 86 years old, died in Moberly Tuesday after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Bridget Morrissey died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Anna Wesinger of Moberly, Monday.

The marriage of Miss Claudia Walkup of Moberly to Myrtle Wengler of Glasgow will take place in the near future.

Miss Jennie Betts of Moberly offers for sale a mirror 117 years old. It was purchased in the east in 1790.

Wm. Johnson Bagby of near Huntsville succumbed to appendicitis Saturday. He was 16 years old and a son of Mrs. Laura Bagby.

In the five schools that represented at the athletic contests at Kirksville, Saturday, Moberly counted.

Jas. M. Burton was attacked with a spell of heart trouble at his home, south of Huntsville, and came near dying Tuesday morning.

Chas. V. Newnam, general manager of the Moberly Light Co., is asking that city for a 10-year contract. If it is granted him, a new system will be installed throughout the city.

The Sunday Moberly Monitor states that the employees of the Wabash car department in Moberly will strike for higher wages Friday morning. They demand an increase of 2 cts. per hour.

John Bartee and "Skinny" Henry engaged in a fight at Moberly Friday evening. Bartee was working on the night police force and attempted to arrest Henry. He was knocked down by Henry, but finally succeeded in taking him into custody. Henry was fined $3 and costs.

Some alleged relatives of Eugene A. Jackson of Huntsville have been writing to him from Madrid, Spain, endeavoring to "soak" him for $2,500. "Cousin" Lopen Jackson is in prison at Madrid and desires to leave Eugene the care of his 12-year-old daughter and $500,000, for which he is to receive $125,000, but alas! the $2,500 must be forthcoming first.

Jas. A. Rowlett, the Moberly brakeman who was arrested about a week ago on the charge of breaking a government seal on a box car and abstracting some articles therefrom, jumped from a moving train, near Chillicothe, Monday, and escaped from the custody of a United States marshal. He was re-arrested in Sumner Monday night by City Marshal Berry. Rowlett was not injured by his wild leap for freedom. He was placed in the Sumner jail and held until the U. S. marshal arrived to escort the prisoner to jail at St. Joseph.

MARRIAGES.

Jas. G. Kinslow and Miss Lena Sneed, both of Moberly.

Rolla Smith and Miss Anna Tatum, both of Moberly.
